JUDGE GILDERSLERVE'S CANDIDACY.

Words of Commendation from Men of All Political Parties.

The one Tammany Hall candidate who has taken an active part in this campaign is Judge Henry A. Gildersleeve. Usually he is the most active in a red-hot fight, and now he is that a terrible affliction has befallen him. His eldest son, a promising young man, died just at the opening of the campaign, from typhoid fever. His two other sons have been, with the disease also, and their condition has been, and is still, such that it is deemed safe to tell them of their brother's death. Judge Gildersleeve has been constantly at their bedside, and has not even been able to attend to all of his official duties. A few of his most intimate friends have carried on his campaign for him. The season in which he is held by his associates in the courts, and by men irrespective of party, is shown by the following endorsements received at his office in the past two days. It will be noticed that at least one-half of them are from conspicuous Republicans;

Non-Residing Justice of the Supreme Court: Hon. Desiring Justice of the opinion that the Hon. Henry A. Gildersleeve has shown himself well qualified to discharge the duties of a Judge of the Supreme Court, and that his election would secure a capable and faithful Judge, in whose integrity and industry the people and bar will have renewed confidence. For the reasons stated, I give Judge Gildersleeve my hearty approval, and a very honorable gentleman."

Judge Rufus B. Cowing of the Court of General Sessions: "Judge Gildersleeve was my associate for eleven years on the bench of this court, and in my opinion, he is in every respect qualified to fill the high judicial position for which he is now a candidate. With respect to his temper and ability I cannot speak too highly."

Edward L. Carey: "In Judge Gildersleeve the Irishman have a staunch and tried friend, and no more intelligent and friendly representation of their cause has ever been received from the hands of Judge Gildersleeve. His election to the bench of the Supreme Court, and nomination for and election to the office of Judge of the Supreme Court will, I doubt not, be warmly supported in all quarters by all Irishmen who have a heart for their country. I am a hearty supporter of Judge Gildersleeve."

Frederic H. Condit: "I am well acquainted with Judge Gildersleeve for a long time, and I have the greatest respect for him, and believe that he will be elected to the important office of Judge of the Supreme Court, and that he will be a valuable addition to the bench of the Supreme Court."

Judge William C. Wallace of the United States District Court: "I am a publicist, and not inclined to endorse Judge Gildersleeve's candidacy, but I have known him for a long time, and I have the greatest respect for him, and believe that he will be elected to the important office of Judge of the Supreme Court, and that he will be a valuable addition to the bench of the Supreme Court."

Judge Morgan O'Brien: "I have known Judge Gildersleeve for a long time, and I have the greatest respect for him, and believe that he will be elected to the important office of Judge of the Supreme Court, and that he will be a valuable addition to the bench of the Supreme Court."

Judge James F. Fitzgerald of the Court of General Sessions: "I have known Judge Gildersleeve for a long time, and I have the greatest respect for him, and believe that he will be elected to the important office of Judge of the Supreme Court, and that he will be a valuable addition to the bench of the Supreme Court."

Judge James F. Fitzgerald of the Court of General Sessions: "I have known Judge Gildersleeve for a long time, and I have the greatest respect for him, and believe that he will be elected to the important office of Judge of the Supreme Court, and that he will be a valuable addition to the bench of the Supreme Court."

have the life of a friend I thought then it was for some good purpose. I feel that the public, if indications can be relied upon, will give Judge Gildersleeve a large vote, and his election is unquestionably assured.

Mr. Herman Deloria: "It is the duty of every voter, irrespective of politics, to consider well such men as Judge Henry A. Gildersleeve for the administration of the law, and to give him a man of unflinching courage, integrity, and moral courage, and to give him a man of ability. Such a man, after an acquaintance of many years, have I found Judge Gildersleeve to be. His election is unquestionably assured, and he has my hearty endorsement and support."

Mr. C. C. Desser: "Judge Gildersleeve has m-congratulations on his nomination to the office of Judge of the Supreme Court, which he has been due to his high rank as a particular and which to me, personally, is extremely gratifying."

Mr. F. S. Williamson: "I shall follow Judge Gildersleeve's career with a lively interest, and I feel that the public, if indications can be relied upon, will give Judge Gildersleeve a large vote, and his election is unquestionably assured."

Mr. J. B. Hornblower: "I am sure that his election would commend itself to the people and the bar. Judge Gildersleeve made a most convincing reputation for himself in the Court of General Sessions, and is a man of highest character, integrity, and ability. His election to the bench of the Supreme Court, and his nomination for and election to the office of Judge of the Supreme Court will, I doubt not, be warmly supported in all quarters by all Irishmen who have a heart for their country. I

PAIRIE FIRES IN CHICAGO.

The Western City has sufficient Territory for a Dried Grass Conflagration.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—The Police and Fire

Departments at Grand Crossing had a sharp hand-to-hand fight with a fire for six hours yesterday at Ninety-second street, east of the Illinois Central track, and on Drexel avenue between Seventy-seventh and Seventy-eighth streets. The cause of the fire at Ninety-second street was a spark from a passing engine. Dried grass furnished material. When the spark struck the turf, it caused much trouble, and it was with great difficulty the firemen and police could accomplish anything. Scores of men and boys and a hundred or more railroad men assisted. Several hundred feet of sidewalk and fences were destroyed before the flames were checked. The fire on the west of Drexel avenue was caused by small boys with matches. Several acres of prairie were burned here and 300 feet of sidewalk destroyed.

MORNING, Ill. Oct. 31.—Destructive prairie fires are sweeping the country east of the city between the Chicago and Indian coal road and the Chicago River. The heaviest losses thus far are the Chatfield House, one-half mile east of here, who lost all their farm buildings, including the house, and a large amount of hay and implements. Further east
